To the Director-General

Circular letter No. 31

Subject: Vacancy Notice No. 781P-2022/SG-JUR/EXTERNAL/P4

Dear Sir,

The post described in the Annex is to be filled at ITU Headquarters.

The relevant job description with the qualifications required, as well as all other useful information, is annexed hereto.

Administrations are requested to circulate vacancy notices to all potential sources of recruitment including universities, institutes, associations of engineers and the private sector as the case may be.

I would be grateful if Administrations would invite qualified candidates and especially women candidates to apply for the above position not later than 11/10/2022 on ITU web site:

<https://jobs.itu.int/go/View-all-categories/8942455/>

The Plenipotentiary Conference adopted the Resolution 48 (Rev. Dubai 2018), affirming that: "...when filling vacant posts by international recruitment, in choosing between candidates who meet the qualification requirements for a post, preference shall be given to candidates from regions of the world which are under-represented in the staffing of the Union, taking into account the balance between female and male staff mandated by the United Nations common system;"

Yours faithfully,

Mr. Houlin ZHAO
Secretary-General

Annexes: Vacancy Notice No. 781P-2022/SG-JUR/EXTERNAL/P4

The General Secretariat is also responsible for the organization of world telecommunication exhibitions and forums.

Within the General Secretariat and as part of the Office of the Secretary-General, the Legal Affairs Unit (JUR) conducts studies and provides legal advice and opinions on various types of documents, including treaties, agreements, contracts etc., to enable the Secretary-General to act as legal representative of the Union in its relations with the Member States and other international or multinational organisations; carries out the legal functions associated with the Secretary-General's role as depository of the treaties and other agreements concluded by, or under the auspices of, the Union; studies, and deals with, general legal matters of all kinds and specific questions submitted to it by the Bureaux and Departments of the Union in connection with the Union's structure, functions and activities; advises on the interpretation of legal instruments (Constitution and Convention and Administrative Regulations of the Union, as well as other treaties and agreements, regulations, resolutions etc.); prepares draft amendments to the Constitution and Convention of the Union, its internal rules and regulations and other legal texts; at conferences and meetings, provides legal opinions and performs secretariat functions, as necessary; represents the Union, in particular regarding legal matters, at conferences and meetings with other organisations; carries out any other tasks associated with the Union's activities and entrusted to it by the Secretary-General.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Under the supervision of the General Legal Counsel, the incumbent will perform the following duties:

- Conduct comprehensive legal research, analyse any legal documents and precedents, provide opinions, prepare memoranda and other documents of a legal nature, and provide specialized legal advice on questions related to the functions, working methods and mandate of the Union. Such matters may include, without limitation, relatively complex legal or policy questions in the field of data protection and privacy, administrative law, intellectual property law, contracts law and public international law.

- Collaborate with the General Legal Counsel in the preparation of opinions on particularly complex or delicate questions in the above-mentioned fields.
- Provide legal advice to technical committees (Study Groups, Working Parties, Rapporteur Groups, Focus Groups) and other technical bodies on questions related to the above-mentioned fields, as well as on procedural matters.
- Negotiate, prepare and/or review contracts and agreements of relative complexity, including MoUs project documents which have been submitted to the Legal Affairs Unit for legal review, comments clearance. Develop new legal forms and contractual templates (including on data protection and privacy matters) with a view to improving contract management.
- Provide legal advice and assist in resolving procedural and substantive legal issues during conferences, assemblies, and meetings of the Union.
- Act as Secretary of the Credentials Committee for treaty-making conferences of the Union. In this capacity: (a) provide legal advice to Member States and the Credentials Committee, with a view to ensure that Member States' credentials and transfers of powers are submitted and processed in accordance with ITU basic texts, international treaty law and UN practice; (b) supervise the work of the administrative staff assigned to the Credentials Committee secretariat in supporting the work of the Credentials Committee; and (c) coordinate with the conference secretariat, to ensure that the decisions of the Credentials Committee with respect to the rights of Member States to vote and sign the final acts of the conference are properly implemented.
- Develop proposals related to components of legal instruments such as treaty texts, internal regulations, policies and other materials based on standard practice.
- Prepare briefs and assist in representing the Union in cases before judicial, arbitral and other dispute resolution bodies.
- Consult and liaise with counterparts in other organizations and represent the Legal Affairs Unit at internal meetings, boards or committees, and at external conferences and meetings, in accordance with instructions received.
- Perform other related duties as assigned.
