10.1.14 TELEVOTING SERVICE

Televoting service permits a subscriber to conduct public opinion polls and surveys via telephone. Callers who wish to respond to a survey or opinion poll call the televoting access number 1661 to access the televoting portal. When the televoting access number is called, a voice message welcomes the caller, requests language selection and directs the caller to enter a four digit number (XXXX) assigned to the subscriber to identify the survey or opinion poll that the caller wishes to respond to and which is advertised by the subscriber. The caller registers a vote/opinion by entering the appropriate digit associated with the subscriber's vote/opinion which can range from 1 to 9. The subscriber can call the televoting portal to obtain vote/opinion count information on demand.
