

Draft

Special conditions for class licenses Type (B) To provide Internet of Things (IoT) Services using License- exempt frequency

First: Service Detention

Internet of Things (IoT) Services using License- exempt frequency is the number of services and use cases provided by a licensee from CITC through Low Power Wide Area Networks (LPWAN) that use License- exempt frequency.

Second: Obligations of Service providers

1. The servers used to provide IoT services must be in inside the Kingdom, and all data should be must inside the kingdom.
2. Must comply with the Technical Specification number (RI114).
3. The service provider shall provide CITC with any information and data related to the services provided once requested.
4. Service providers must not disclose end user information. Additionally, user rights must be protected.

5. Service provider must provide the technical protection to prevent any breaches.
6. Adhere to the content of the Regulatory Framework on Internet of Things.
7. Adhere to all regulation, decisions, procedures and guidelines issued by CITC to regulate the use of these technologies and networks. For more information, please visit CITC website (www.citc.gov.sa) for information on new regulations, and the regulations or other instructions in this regard.